“Our faith and the Eucharistic Liturgy both have their source in the same event:
Christ’s gift of Himself in the Paschal Mystery.”

—Pope Benedict XVI

The Second Vatican Council stated that the Holy Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian Life” (Lumen Gentium, 11). As the Church embraces the revised edition of the Roman Missal, it is good to be reminded that, “an indispensable means of effectively sustaining communion with Christ is assuredly the Sacred Liturgy” (Vita Consecrata, 95).

The 2012 IRL National Meeting, co-sponsored by the LITURGICAL INSTITUTE at Mundelein Seminary, will investigate the cosmic and eschatological character of the Church’s rich liturgical heritage, rooted in the Paschal Mystery of Christ.

Teens and young adults (ages 13-25) are invited to attend Saturday’s general session—lunch included—free of charge as the IRL’s guests. In the morning, the young people will attend the general session that includes talks by Dr. Scott Hahn (right) and Rev. James Kubicki, S.J. In the afternoon various informative and inspiring workshops will be offered, including a special Dr. Hahn presentation for youth only. Space is limited, so those wishing to attend must register in advance.
